FOLLOWS LAST WEEKS STORY OF A DIARY
WITH AN ESTIMATE OF
THE MAN WHO KEPT IT

ORIGIN HENRY GETTER
SOLDIER AND CITIZEN

Apologizing for the length and, at the same time the sketchiness of our last week's story of the diary of the eventful year of 1865, we can not leave the subject without adding this addenda. It was our fortune to know intimately in his last years, the man who kept that diary, Origin Henry Getter.

It is regrettable that the entries in Mr. Getter's diary for the year 1865 were not transcribed and preserved in a more enduring form before the ravages of time had rendered so much of it illegible.

From other documents in possession of his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Crow, to supplement what is decipherable from the diary, it can be determined that he entered the Federal Army as a private in Company H., of the 4th Regiment of Michigan Infantry on June 20, 1861.

This early date of entry into the service, following the outbreak of hostilities in the spring of 1861, together with the fact that the diary shows him still in the service long after the end of the war, establishes the fact that he saw active service over practically the entire period of the war.

The diary further establishes the fact that much of that service was seen in the Eastern theatre of activities where much of the severest fighting occurred. It further develops that, due to the regrouping of troops in a necessary through depletion in the ranks, he found himself attached to the regular army before the end of 1865.

Therefore, in the shifting of troops from one area of activity to another, we find that the diary that was started in Virginia at the beginning of the year was closed away down here in Texas at the end of the year, his unit having been in the meantime transferred to this area.

He was mustered out of the service at San Antonio on February 26, 1866, thus lacking just a few months of being in actual service all of five years.

However distasteful the Texas climate was to the soldier boy, as attested by the quotation from his song quoted in our preceding article, he was evidently most favorably impressed with the charms of the Texas girls.

On February 7, 1866, just 19 days before his discharge from the army, he married a Texas girl, Miss Eleanor Brown, a Medina County girl.

The young couple resided first at San Marcos. Here their first child, a son, was born and died in infancy. Later they resided in the city of Austin.

While visiting Mrs. Getter's people at Devine, late in 1881 or early in 1882, they heard of Hondo as a boom town, established by the railroad in 1881 when it built westward through Medina County and he being a carpenter and builder by trade, Mr. Getter moved to Hondo with his young family and became a permanent factor in Hondo's growth and development.

Mrs. Crow, then a small girl, has a very vivid recollection of Hondo as a mushrooming railroad town springing up on the prairie.

The first and then only available living quarters for the family was upstairs in the two-story frame building standing just east and alongside, the present R. E. building erected many years later. The frame building was then Hondo's only hotel and was likewise the eating station for the train crews and passengers stopping here.

Mr. Getter found his services as a carpenter and builder in demand and had an active part in the building of the town. One of his early achievements was the erection of Hondo's first Missionary Baptist church. The building was a frame structure erected about a block west of where the present courthouse now stands.

By a strange freak of circumstances, this church, together with the Methodist, a similar structure located about where the present brick church stands, were both demolished one night in the early summer of 1896 by the worst wind storm in the town's history.

Mr. and Mrs. Getter were the parents of eight children, only two of whom are now living. They are Mrs. Nona Anderson of Houston and Mrs. Jim Crow of Hondo.

Death claimed the old soldier at an advanced age on March 13, 1928, and his companion followed him soon, in June of the same year. Together they sleep in the family plot in the city's first cemetery.

The only daughter still residing in Hondo, Olive Getter, was married to J. W. Crow on September 21, 1898, and for some years have had the distinction of being the oldest married couple residing in Hondo. Their two sons, Origin and Ben, reside with them in Hondo. Their only daughter, Meda, now Mrs. O'Connell, resides in San Antonio.

It must have required courage and stamina for Mr. Getter, a Union veteran fresh from the sanguinary battle fields of the eastern theatre of the War Between the States, to cast his lot with the people of Texas so soon after the close of that conflict.

But how well he adapted himself to his changed relations is attested by the fact that all, who like this writer, knew him in his later years, held him in utmost respect and were happy to know him as a friend.

As a striking evidence of the softening effects of time, some of his staunchest friends were men who had "worn the gray" while he was on the other side. And when death sounded the last trumpet call for O. H. Getter, he went mourned by all—with the enemy of none! A victory more to be desired than any ever won on a battlefield no matter how just the cause!

And Fact No. 2 proves it: Buick today is more strongly entrenched than ever in the top three of the nation's best sellers — outselling all other cars in America except two of the well-known smaller cars.

One big reason for this success is the strapping new Buick SPECIAL—like the one pictured here.

It's priced right close to those smaller cars—but, like every '56 Buick, it's a whale of a lot more new car for the money.

It cradles a big, new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine that's record-high in power and compression, and crammed with engineering news even the costly cars can't claim.

It makes the most of every bit of power with a new version of Variable Pitch Dynaflo* that's the most efficient yet. With a new development the engineers call "double regeneration," Dynaflo gives you great new acceleration from the first thrifty inch of pedal pressure. Even before you switch the pitch.

And this '56 Buick cushions you in the softest ride ever. Shows an uncanny sense of direction on every curve and turn. Puts a whole new feeling of safety, security and solidity into every mile you drive.

So before you buy any car—catch up on the latest news. Come try a '56 Buick. When you see how much new automobile your money can buy, we don't think you'll ever settle for less.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Summer Vacations Help Make Automobile Accidents Happen

Now that millions of people are taking their summer vacations and driving about the country, automobile accidents are occurring with increasing frequency. When involved in an accident, it is hard to keep your wits about you and know just what to do.

It is therefore a good idea to plan in advance just what you would do in event of a smash-up. Here are a few simple rules that every driver should commit to memory:

1. Stop! Failure to stop can result in serious criminal consequences.
2. Render Aid. If anyone is injured: (1) Render first aid. (2) Stop bleeding. (3) Call a doctor or an ambulance or both. (4) Do not move an injured person in any way that could possibly add to his injury.

3. Protect the Scene from Further Damage. You may be liable for damages to approaching drivers, unless they are properly warned. If the highway is obstructed at night, have someone turn his headlight beams on the wrecked vehicles.
4. Call an Officer. Policemen and their deputies are trained accident investigators whose testimony may be invaluable in establishing your civil claim for damages.

5. Gather Information. Write it Down. Don't trust your memory. Don't guess—be specific. Measure skid marks. Step off distances. Be sure to obtain names and addresses of witnesses. You are required by law to exhibit your driver's license to the other driver—and he must do the same.
6. Be Careful What You Say. Even if you feel you probably are to blame, it is best to make no admission. You may learn later that the other driver was equally at fault, or more so. Emotional comments can be misconstrued by others, or may be misquoted. Whatever you say, make it factual.
7. See Your Doctor if there is the slightest chance you may be injured. Serious injuries do not always result in immediate pain or bloodshed.

8. Consult Your Lawyer Immediately. The sooner your lawyer is brought into the matter, the better he can advise you and protect your rights. He can obtain statements from the witnesses while their memories are fresh, and do many other things to insure that the true facts are preserved. Get your lawyer's advice before giving any interviews or statements to investigators or adjusters for the other side.
9. Inform Your Insurance Company Promptly. Failure to do so may void your policy.
10. Report the Accident to the Department of Public Safety. This is required by law if there is any injury, death, or total damages exceed $25.

An official accident report form may be procured from the Police, Sheriff's Dept., Highway Patrol, or State Dept. of Public Safety.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law).

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Just the Facts, Ma'am!

Having a red-hot crime wave in town. Specs McGuire and Buck Hanson were caught taking money out of parking meters—again. I was at Police Headquarters when a nice old lady rushed in to report them.

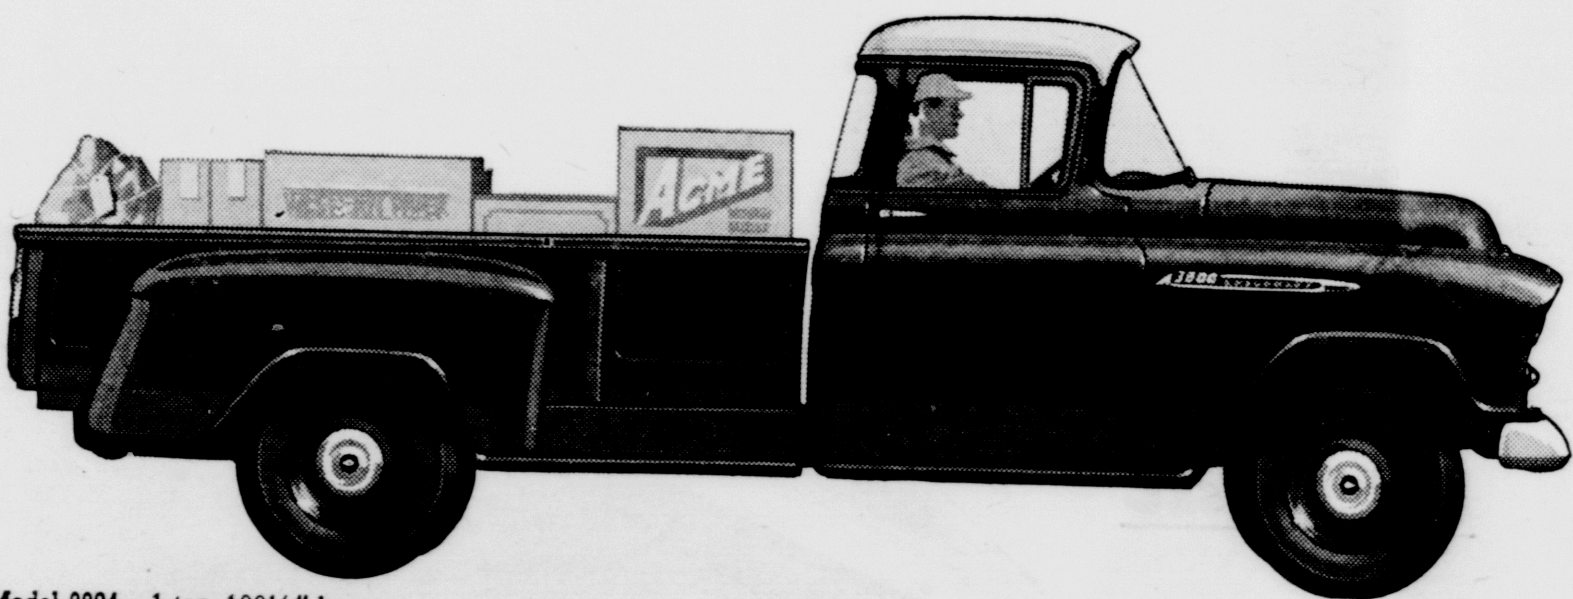

"It was dark but I saw their faces in the flashlight beam," she said breathlessly. "You can't trust anybody these days!"

She got flustered when Chief Benson explained that Specs and Buck are authorized collectors—working nights after their regular jobs. "Have to get 'em uniforms," said Benson. "Third time they've been turned in!"

From where I sit, we ought to guard against accusing anyone of being "wrong" just because that's the way it looks to us. For instance, I've heard people talk against a neighbor because they didn't approve of his choice of beverage! (They liked tea, or something, while he preferred a glass of beer.) Be sure you have a case before you lay down the law.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE

By Jerry June Berger

This is being written in Louisville, Ky., Sunday morning just before we board air conditioned buses for a six-day tour of the state.

The husband and I are attending a National Editorial Association meeting and have learned a few things from some of the 400 newspaper people from every state in the union as well as having an enjoyable change from the weekly routine.

About 180 of us are going on this post-convention tour over Kentucky, then part of these will sail on into the Caribbean for an additional two weeks.

The state has gone all out to provide a week of entertainment for us, as the days are filled to capacity with scheduled sight-seeing and delightful meals through Friday evening.

On our trip from Hondo, we couldn't help noticing how the countryside begins to look greener starting east of Austin and continuing all the way here.

The pine-lined highways and cottonwood-ed areas of East Texas are a sight for the eyes of drought-stricken West Texans.

But most of their beauty is nature created. We couldn't help wondering what the Hondo area would look like with all their rainfall.

It appeared to us that the majority of yards and parkways in our own area are prettier and better kept than these, for with all their green grass some of it is growing under their feet. For example, we did not see one park as well kept as Hondo's high way parks.

And that goes for the highway department parks too. The roadside park five miles east of Hondo and the one on the hill at Castroville are always cleaner than any we saw.

Atlanta, Texas, about our size in population was one of the few exceptions to the park outlook.

They have a large municipal park in the city limits which includes a swimming pool, wooded areas, picnic grounds and play equipment.

That we would like to have for Hondo. And it isn't an impossible thought even though we would have to plant the trees and keep them watered!

Seco Philosopher Soil Bank Bill Signed Seco Looks For New Plan

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm, as might be expected, is hard at work trying to figure out the angles on the soil bank, his letter this week reveals.
 Dear editor:
 Now that Congress has passed and the President has signed the Soil Bank bill, I have been giving considerable thought to how I can put it into effect this year. After all, if Congress is going to the trouble of offering me help, the least I can do is figure out a way to accept it without stalling around.
 As I understand it, the Soil Bank is now in effect, for this year, if I can meet the requirements, and I aim to try, because since I suppose it'll be in effect not only next year but several years to come, anybody who misses out on this year has just missed that portion forever, and it's not Congress' intention, or mine either, to miss out on anything as pleasant as getting paid for staying off my cultivator.
 But what I can decide not to plant this year is a problem. However, I've been thinking. In view of the fact it would suit Washington mighty well to get rid of some of that money this year, and since all you have to do to qualify is to decline to plant a given number of acres this year, I have decided not to plant any Fall cotton this year. I will be glad to sign up on Sept. 1 not to plant a stalk of that stuff this fall, and I figure if Washington is on the ball I should get my check before Christmas, maybe even before the election in November.
 Of course, if Washington smells a rat in this deal, I have some other crops which ain't doing so well right now, in fact they could be turned back to grass like the Soil Bank stipulates merely by throwing my hoe away and I would like to get those acres in at least. It's true I've already been to some expense in getting the crops up, but I figure this is a give and take proposition, and I'll make a sacrifice if Washington will make a bigger one.
 Another thing I'd like to find out about the program is the possibility of borrowing acres from your neighbors. Say a man has some extra energetic neighbor who doesn't want to put any of his land in the Soil Bank. Since the purpose of the bill is to reduce the surplus by reducing the acreage, could I borrow his allotment and transfer it to my farm? I figure if I could get enough borrowed acres, I could put my whole farm in the Soil Bank, and give not only my farm a rest but me and my equipment too.
 After all, Washington ought to be willing to lean over backwards a little if I'm willing to sit down altogether.
 Yours faithfully,
 J. A.

Louis George
Owner of a 120-Acre Farm in Hondo

42 Years In Engineering

From Apprentice To Engineer

After spending 42 years as a mechanical engineer, Louis George settled on Hondo as a good place to live.

Born in 1894, George served in both world wars as an officer and was with the Royal Navy of England for 17 years. He never went to high school but served as an apprentice and then spent two years at Dartmouth where he received a diploma in mechanical engineering.

His mother and father died when he was nine years old and he spent the rest of his childhood with his grandparents in Scotland.

One of his major tasks was with a large steel works. He spent 13 months on the job, in charge of installation, inspection and starting of all pumps, heaters, tanks and other mechanical equipment at the power station, compressor building, bulk fuel oil pump house and water treatment plant. A total of $23,000,000 worth of equipment was under his direct supervision.

A member of the In-Active Reserve, George served as chief engineer of steam vessels of any horsepower and any gross in the United States Coast Guard.

He possesses licenses from the city of New York to service all types of stationary engines and the State of Texas to repair, test and seal safety valves for use on installations covered by the Texas Boiler Inspection Law.

While in Scotland from 1906-24, George was a member of the Masonic Lodge and recently was accepted as a dual member here. He is also a member of the Chamber of Commerce, the Lions Club and the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

While serving as consulting engineer to the Federal Bar of Mexico for three years, he also inspected vessels for an insurance company.

As an apprentice at Dartmouth, he was required to work in the shop for eight hours and spend five nights a week in school. A total of four years apprenticeship must be served before entering college.

He has worked in practically every state in the union as a trouble shooter. His wife, Bertha, traveled with him for eleven of their 37 years together. They have four children, James, Dallas; Ronald, Elizabeth and Evelyn, all of New York.

"NOTHING IS GOOD OR BAD, BUT BY COMPARISON."

In 1900 about 135 infants out of every 1,000 died before they were one year old. Now we are losing less than 25 out of every 1,000. It is bad to lose any of our precious ones, but good that improved medical techniques and new drugs are helping to save lives.

Childhood diseases can now either be prevented or more easily treated. Among the weapons used in this battle are . . . vaccines, antibiotics, and powerful, but safe antiseptics. All of them are in our pharmacy awaiting the opportunity to help.

Legion Remains Unbeaten

Boasting a perfect record of four wins and no losses, Hondo's American Legion nine continues its winning ways.

Hondo pounded out a crushing 14-3 win over Alamo Heights Legion of San Antonio here last Friday night, June 8, as pitcher Alvin Hartman set the San Antonio club down on a five hitter.

A second inning uprising netted the Hondo baseballers five runs, with Henry Balzen, Hartman, Steve Haby, Francis Lutz and Mike Finger crossing the plate.

Manager J. G. Barry's team counted four more times in the third as Balzen, Royce Groff, Haby and Lutz dented home plate for Hondo.

Hondo collected three more runs in the fourth, and two in the sixth. In all, the Hondoans got eight hits.

Lutz paced Hondo in hitting with two hits in four trips to the plate, including a two-bagger. He also scored two runs. Haby was the only other Hondo player to get more than one hit, garnering two hits in five times at bat.

Hondo's speedy Francis Lutz white-washed a fine Uvalde Legion baseball team here last Tuesday, June 12, on a brilliant three-hitter. Lutz, in gaining credit for the victory, struck out seven.

The Hondo club opened the night's scoring in the second inning, pushing across two runs on two hits. Second baseman Hartman led off with a single, went to second on Bobby Bayer's one-bagger and scored later on a wild pitch.

Bayer crossed the plate after a wild pitch and an error on Justin Jungman's grounder to second base.

Hondo got one more run in the third. This time on two hits. Gilbert Gallegos led off with a walk, went to second on Hartman's single, raced to third on an error and scored on Jungman's single.

The final two Hondo scores came in the sixth frame. Right fielder Tommy Bippert started things off with a walk and reached third on a two-base blow by Groff. Groff raced home following a wild pitch and an error.

Royce Groff was the top batsman for the Hondo team, getting two hits - both doubles in three trips to the plate. Alvin Hartman, playing second base, was next in line with two singles in four times at bat.

Braves Trowned By Indians

The Castroville Indians trounced the Hondo Braves 22-3 Sunday, banging out five doubles, one triple and two homers.

The Indians jumped on the offerings of Hondo pitchers Finger and Schweers for 19 solid hits.

George Schmidt, veteran left-handed third baseman, came up with one of his best days for the Indians as he smashed a long, bases-loaded homer in the second and followed up with a two run scoring double in the fourth. G. Kempf blasted the other homer over the left field fence in the seventh.

R. Keller and W. Tschirhart teamed up to hold the Braves to four hits and three runs, striking out five in the process. Their pitching efforts were backed up with solid defensive play as the Indians committed only one bobbie and chipped in with two double plays to help win their eighth game in eleven Hi-Way 90 outings.

SPEAKING OF SPORTS

By Dr. John H. Jennings

THE LEGION TEAM
We have said a number of things about the local Hondo American Legion team, but might be well to give a run of the roster.

From St. Louis High of troville,

Francis Lutz, pitcher; Bobby Groff, catcher; Justin Jungman, outfielder; Rodney Tschirhart, second base; Dennis Haby, first base; and Stephen Haby, shortstop.

Castroville, Public School, Bobby Bayer, outfielder; Tommy Bippert, pitcher, and LaCoste High School, Russell Jungman, infielder; Bradford Bush, pitcher; D'Hanis High School, Mike Finger, first baseman; Louis Lutz, pitcher; and Gallegos, third baseman.

Hondo High School, Alvin Hartman, pitcher; Curtis Wiemers, third baseman, catcher; Wayne Balzen, fielder; and Henry Balzen, fielder.

It's a fine collection of young ballplayers, and a team the do and will enjoy this summer.

HURRICANES NO-HIT VICTORY
The Softball Hurricanes trounced a whole peck of trouble into other nite—as they were out 10 to 0 and the Braves in the process. Two Hurricanes got walks but one was out via a double play—so only Hurricanes got to the plate the 7 inning game.

GOLF DOINGS
Good news about the Hondo course—the club house expansion and moving has been approved. It may be some time before the move to the old National Guard building will be made—but funds and authority are in the fold. They will put the club house very near the main gate—fence off No. 4 fairway will be moved—and sometime in the future, a large putting green will be installed near the clubhouse.

Pro Joe Mitchell is to be seeding No. 1 and No. 2 ways in the next few days—soon the recently acquired putting green will be installed to insure for all the fairways.
A number of local golfers are entering the sweepstakes Uvalde Sunday, June 24th, and then in the first part of July more will enter a 1956 tournament planned for the Uvalde course.

Texans Will Give Views On Issues

Austin, Tex.—Next month, for the first time in 24 years, Texans will be asked to vote — not only on men — but directly on issues.

State Democratic Executive Committee members have approved the placing of three questions on the primary ballot. Voters can express their desires for or against:

1. Legislation exempting a child from compulsory attendance at integrated schools.

2. Legislation "perfecting" laws against intermarriage of Negroes and whites, and;

3. Use of interposition to halt federal encroachment on states rights.

Majority approval presumably would constitute a mandate for action by the next legislature.

Historically, such voter referendums seldom have been used. And not too successfully. Present procedures, still substantially unchanged, were set up with the passage of the Terrell Election Laws in 1907.

In the nearly 50 years since then, referendums were held only three times. And failed to pass twice. In 1908 a prohibition proposal was voted down more than two to one. In 1919, the people rejected three to one, a proposal to call a constitutional convention.

But, in 1932 Texans voted overwhelmingly in favor of repealing the federal prohibition amendment. A year later the legislature followed suit and ratified the repeal amendment.

This was the last referendum submitted until this year. In other action the State Executive Committee certified a list of 31 candidates for state wide office. It ignored a charge by Reuben Senterfitt that Price Daniel's name was ineligible to appear on the ballot because he had not resigned his U. S. Senate post.

Fort Worth was selected by the committee as the site for the Sept. 11 state convention. Principal business at that time will be naming new party officers and deciding on a general election platform for the Democratic gubernatorial nominee.

Selection of the convention site was made at the party's state in Austin.

Committee members sent Pres. Dwight D. Eisenhower a telegram asserting their confidence that he will carry Texas and be re-elected in November.

REDISTRICTING URGED — Demands that Texas congressional districts be realigned were heard at both political party meetings.

Texas was allotted an additional congressman after the 1950 census. Since the legislature has rejected redistricting bills for the past two sessions, the extra man is elected by the entire state.

Bill Elkins, candidate for congressman at-large, told the Democratic executive committee the main plank in his platform is to have the office he seeks abolished.

Republican National Committeeman Jack Porter said the GOP legal committee might seek federal court action to force the legislature to redistrict.

"It's not fair to have the same representation from districts of 100,000 as you do from areas with more than a million," Porter charged.

PEARSON BLAMED AGAIN — In a report made public by the Insurance Commission, TV man Drew Pearson received the brunt of the blame for luring Texans into investing money in the now defunct US Trust & Guaranty Co. The report was based on answers to questionnaires sent draft purchasers by the state liquidator's office.

Questionnaires were answered by 3,608 purchasers. They represented investments of $4,711,132. Nearly half of them charged Pearson with influencing them into buying. This because of his personal, off-repeated statement that "You can put your trust in U. S. Trust."

Because Pearson personally recommended the purchase, the TV broadcaster several months ago pledged to refund all "profits" made on his commercials. As of this writing, the Insurance Commission's records do not reveal any such repayments by Pearson.

CIVIL IMMUNITY DENIED — public officials are not immune from civil liability for acts in connection with their duties. An Austin district judge so ruled in a case involving two former employees of the Insurance Commission.

Examiners Larry W. Blanchard and Robert R. Butler are among more than 50 defendants in a $6,890,000 damage suit. It was filed by the state liquidator a gainst those allegedly responsible for the 1954 collapse of the big General American Casualty Co. of San Antonio.

PARR TRIAL DELAY EXPECTED—Another six months delay seems likely before the case of George B. Parr on income tax evasion charges takes place. Parr's plea to have the trial in Laredo, rather than Austin, was rejected by the US Supreme Court. U. S. Attorney's promptly asked Judge Ben H. Rice of Austin for an early setting, preferably in July. But Parr's attorneys said they will file for a rehearing before the Supreme Court. Such action could keep the case from coming up until January of 1957.

Parr was first indicted in 1954. He is charged with filing false returns in 1949, 1950 and 1951 and failing to pay the government $86,000.

BIRTH CERTIFICATE BOTTLENECK — State Health officials are urging parents of children who will enter school for the first time next fall to avoid the "birth certificate bottleneck." In past years thousands of requests have swamped the department in September. An estimated 260,000 children will be eligible to enter first grade this year.

SHORT SNORTS — Soaring heat and lack of rain is withering Texas crops and pastures in all areas except the high plains, reports the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The high plains still are green after three consecutive weeks of showers. May was one of the best contract award months in Texas construction history. The $168,102,823 contracted in May brings the 1956 total to $572,000,000. That is better than the record year of 1953. Eleven South Texas counties have been quarantined against shipments of citrus fruits from Mississippi, Florida, Louisiana and Alabama. Purpose of the State Agriculture Department's ban is to prevent a possible infestation of the Mediterranean fruit fly into Texas groves.

Better Roads, Good Drivers Will Help Make Safer Traffic

By Jerry June Berger

We returned this week from a trip which included approximately three thousand miles and states. This was not a long trip by standards of seasoned travelers but it gave us a good comment on how they might be improved to serve the transient American public.

The two-car family is becoming more common place with each passing year and when a portion of these vehicles get out on the roads accidents happen. It is the job of the highway departments of each of the 48 states to hold the dents to a minimum, but the work is much for them when the highways are excellently needed.

More and more miles of roads now are in the shape of four-lane roads and expressways. The latter, and four-lanes, which have divided, practically make head-on collisions a thing of the past; so these types of construction are greatly to the safety of the motoring public.

For interstate travelers, we think could be lessened if all state highway departments adopted a uniform set of laws governing roads. Undoubtedly they are working toward end, but at present different rates of speed permitted in states and markings of highways are not the same. Naturally, this results in some confusion until the driver orients himself on the and markings of the state he is entering.

There should also be more uniformity of wording of signs. To cite an example, one sign reads, "Inside Lane For Passing Only" another says "Slow Traffic Keep Right" and third says "Keep To Right Except When Passing." On a four-lane road all three of these signs are the same, so different states could easily agree on one which reads the same and looks the same matter which state line is crossed.

We don't intend to belittle the intelligence of the average driver, but feel that any simplification of wording will add to the overall safety.

Of course, no safety device can be expected to help a driver who does not realize traffic laws obeyed, help keep him alive.

There is no hope for this menace nor for who are the innocent victims of his wrong. About the only answer is to forbid consistent violators the privilege of ever again to drive a vehicle. A drunken driver who strikes a pedestrian or causes the occupants of another to suffer should forever be denied the right behind the wheel of any form of transportation.

There is an old saying which goes, "It's better to be right than be president." Along this might suggest one which says, "I'd rather die than die proving I had the right-of-way." It takes some courtesy as well as law obedience to be a safe driver. Sure it's aggravating to have a brassy character drive out in front of you, but technically the right-of-way is yours, but through the incident is the reward for patience.

The best example we know of for courtesy is the heavy duty trailer truck driver fellow goes out of his way to help his fellow on the road. Not only is he first to dim his night-time, but in the daytime you'll find him pulling traffic to come on and pass him when he see the road ahead is clear. We have even seen him pull over on the shoulder of the road, when slowly up a hill, to avoid hampering traffic behind him.

Car drivers not only fail to pull over when they are along, but about a third of them insist on using their ground in the inside lane on a two-lane road making it difficult to get around.

Yessir, the average auto driver would be greatly helped by having some truck driver courtesy off on him.

It is to the benefit of everyone in our country to have fine, safe roads and law respecting considerate persons at the controls of American automobiles. Public demand could eventually result in these.

Soil Bank Plan Requirements Announced; Forms Not Ready

Requirements for participation in the 1956 Acreage Reserve Program under the "Soil Bank Act," Public Law 540, were announced June 8, 1956 by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson. County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees, which will administer the program, will announce locally when the program agreements are available for signature by farmers in the county office. At that time they will have full information on the terms and conditions.

In announcing participation requirements for the 1956 Acreage Reserve Program, Secretary Benson stated:

"We have proceeded with all possible haste since enactment of the Soil Bank legislation to present a sound 1956 program to farmers. It is true, however, that the program for this year is in a sense a special program designed to meet the time limitations and the requirements of the legislation for 1956.

"For that reason, 1956 will not present a fair trial of what the program can accomplish. The rates set for the 1956 program only before next year's crops are planted, however, including fall seeding of wheat this year, we will have an opportunity to plan and develop a more comprehensive program.

"The Soil Bank makes available, beginning especially in 1957, a way to reduce our farm surpluses, to safeguard our soil and water resources and to give a lift to farm prices."

Under the 1956 Acreage Reserve, farmers who are eligible to take part in the program may earn payments in connection with one or more of the commodities staple cotton, peanuts (except Virginias and Valencia for which there is no surplus), rice and most types of tobacco—by reducing their acreage of the crop below the farm's established allotment (or base acreage in the case of corn).

Eligibility Rules

Under the basic rules of eligibility established in keeping with the law, acreage designated for the Acreage Reserve must: (1) Be representative of the land used for the crop, (2) result in the harvesting of an acreage of the basic crop less than the farm allotment or corn base acreage and (3) not be grazed, cut for hay, or cropped for the entire 1956 calendar year. Noxious weeds must also be controlled on the "reserved" acreage.

In order to participate in the Acreage Reserve, a farmer must comply with all acreage allotments or corn base established for the farm.

Program Provisions

The 1956 program, as provided by law, contains special provisions and payments which enable farmers to participate this year. Any farmer who otherwise complies with the provisions of the Acreage Reserve will be eligible for payment if:

1. He has underplanted his Soil Bank corn base or his allotment for cotton, rice, tobacco, peanuts, or wheat (when planted to spring wheat) and he certifies that he underplanted (a) in anticipation of complying with the 1956 Acreage Reserve or (b) because of adverse weather conditions; or

2. He has underplanted his 1956 allotment for winter wheat and certifies that this was done because of adverse weather conditions; or

3. He has complied with his farm allotment for a particular crop, but an acreage of the crop was not harvested because of destruction by natural causes; or

4. The farmer is in an area where an established final date set for the basic commodity for his area is subsequent to May 28 and he plows or otherwise physically incorporates the crop into the soil, or clips, or mows, the crop after May 28 and prior to June 30 or the established final date, whichever is later. (The "established final date" will be the same as the last date on which the acreage of a basic crop may be adjusted in order to bring it into compliance with the acreage allotment of the regular production adjustment program.

Maximum and minimum acreage of the basic crops which may be placed in the Acreage Reserve have been established as follows (except that where the allotment is less than the specified acreage minimum or maximum, the total allotment shall be considered as the minimum or the maximum):

For corn, the maximum is the larger of half the corn base acreage or 50 acres. The minimum is the larger of 10 percent of the base acreage or five acres.

For wheat, the maximum is the larger of half the wheat allotment or 50 acres. The minimum is the larger of 10 percent of allotment or five acres.

For rice, the maximum is the larger of half the rice allotment or 50 acres. The minimum is the larger of 10 percent of the allotment or five acres.

For cotton, the maximum is the larger of half the allotment or 10 acres. The minimum is the larger of 10 percent of the allotment or two acres.

For peanuts, the maximum is the larger of half the allotment or 10 acres. The minimum is the larger of 10 percent of the allotment or one acre.

For tobacco, the maximum is the larger of half the allotment or five acres. The minimum is the larger of 10 percent of the allotment or one acre.

The payment which a farmer may earn for participating in the Acreage Reserve will be determined by multiplying a base unit rate by a yield factor. The national average rates for 1956 crops are: Corn, 90 cents per bushel; cotton, 15 cents per pound; wheat, $1.20 per bushel; rice, $2.25 per hundredweight; peanuts, three cents per pound; and tobacco, varying rates per pound for different types (details in USDA press release 1661-56 issued June 8, 1956).

Determining Payments

Payments will be determined as follows:

For underplanting the corn base or the allotment for cotton, rice, tobacco, peanuts, or wheat (when planted to spring wheat), the payment rate will be based on the normal yield for the designated acreage.

For underplanting 1956 winter wheat, because of adverse weather, the payment will be $4 per acre.

For destruction due to natural causes or for plowing or otherwise physically incorporating the crop into the soil, or for clipping, mowing, or cutting the crop, the payment will be based on the smaller of an appraised yield for the field or the normal yield for the farm, but will not be less than $6 per acre.

Provisions of the Conservation Reserve part of the Soil Bank will be announced as soon as practical. Under this part of the program, a farmer will be able to earn two types of payment—an annual payment to help compensate for income which he would have received if the "reserved" land had been in crop, and a payment representing a percentage of the cost of establishing conservation practices on such land.

The same acreage on a farm may not be included under both the Acreage Reserve and the Conservation Reserve parts of the Soil Bank.

For Medina Farmers

For Medina County farmers information, the following comments are offered in connection with certain parts of this announcement.

(1) Texas is not in the commercial Corn Area, therefore the Acreage Reserve Program will not be applicable to corn in Texas.

(2) Spring Wheat references do not apply to Texas.

(3) Item four of the announcement does not apply to wheat in Texas since May 20 was the last date in the State to adjust acreage for compliance under the regular Production Adjustment Program.

(4) For cotton and peanuts, final disposal dates will be established by the State ASC Committee which dates will not be later than fifteen days before harvest of crop begins in the area.

The "National Average Rates" referred to for Commodities are also the State rates.

Harold J. Baker, County Office Manager, of the Medina county ASC Office, said that agreements with farmers cannot be signed until Forms and regulations are available to county offices and approvals, where necessary, are given by the State Agricultural Committee. Baker said that Medina County farmers will be notified when Forms and regulations are available.

Soil Bank Plan Figured Good Thing For Farmers

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm will get about as far with his idea this week as he does with a lot of others he's had.

Dear editor:

Since Congress was nice enough to provide us farmers with a soil bank, I have been studying every angle I can find to figure out a way to get in on it. It's not going to look right if we sit back and drag our feet.

Therefore, I've been reading everything I can lay my hands on in this connection, and last night I believe I ran on to the idea I've been looking for.

It was a statement by Sec. Benson, who I guess you'd say is president of this bank and is the man to look to. According to him, he is going to be as generous as he can in getting the bank going and will even let a farmer put some land in this year that's already been planted provided "the crop isn't too far advanced."

Now I haven't got time to t a ke this to the Supreme Court to find out what "too far advanced" means, but if Sec. Benson will place a generous, liberal interpretation on it, he and I can do some business.

For example, I've got some crops not only this year that aren't too far advanced, I've got some from 1955, 1954, 1953, 1952, and 1951 that could be classified in the same category. What I would like to do is put 50 acres of not too far advanced crops in the bank this year and also for the years just mentioned, using the same 50 acres multiplied by payments for six years. After all, this big surplus we've got staring us in the face wasn't created in one year, and a man ought to be entitled to payment not only for not contributing to it this year but for past years too.

A long-range, far-sighted program ought to have the virtue also of looking back as well as forward. Of course, I understand to get land in the bank with a crop that's not too far advanced, you'll have to plow it up, but the difference does it make to Sec. Benson whether I plow up this 50 acres six times, one for each crop that never got too far advanced since 1951, or just once? If something can be worked out along this line, let me know. I'm a specialist in producing crops that never get too far advanced.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

The original Decker ranch home, built of native rock, and a far cry from a little hut of adobe, cornstalks and sage grass built by Joseph Decker over a century ago. The present ranch house, its walls of native rock now plastered, was built about 90 years ago. The house is still occupied by Misses Louisa and Lena Decker, Joseph Decker's daughters. Shown standing near the old house in the picture are, in the usual order, the late Louis Decker, the late Robert Decker, Mrs. Josephine Haegelin, Mrs. Lucien Haegelin, Mrs. Louis Rothe, Miss Louisa Decker, Miss Lena Decker, Mrs. E. OLD DECKER RANCH

Present Day Residents
Of This Ancestral Ranch
Still Remember
Indian Raids

By Aline Rothe

"I can still see the slain Comanche lying in a gulley. He was a big fellow—about six feet tall—and there were wild turkey feathers on top of his head. I was about four years old at the time..."

Miss Louisa Decker, 93, sitting with a younger sister, Miss Lena Decker, on the front porch of the ancestral Decker ranch home built almost a century ago, stared out across the historic acres of their ranch and recalled stirring incidents when territory west of the Medina River was still the "old wild West" and settlers battled with Indians for existence on the Texas frontier.

"And," she continued, "I can still picture my maternal grandmother when they brought her in after she was killed by the Indians. She suffered from a sunstroke, and one day she wandered away from the ranch when no one was looking. The family and neighbors searched for her for two days and a night, building bonfires and shooting guns in hopes of attracting her attention. But when they finally found her, the Indians had killed her and tossed her from a bluff above Verde Creek."

On a grave in the Decker family cemetery on the ranch, a marker with a brief inscription is a mute reminder of the tragedy.

Franciska Wantz
1794-1870

Victim of the Indians

While a small girl and on her way one day to the settlement's school, about three miles from the Decker ranch, Louisa Decker and her schoolmates, hearing the distant tinkle of bells on horses of Comanches riding toward them, hastily returned home after a warning by a neighboring rancher's son that he had sighted the Indians.

Tragedy in Decker Family

Misses Louisa and Lena Decker are daughters of Joseph Decker whose parents were among the noted Henri Castro's colonists west of the Medina River. Soon after the arrival of the Decker family in Texas in 1845, a great tragedy befell them. The father-er, a son, a daughter, and an elderly woman living with them all died one night from eating a poisonous plant they thought was water cress similar to that growing in the "old country." Two months later, the mother gave birth to twins and all three died. Left were little Joseph and Charley Decker, aged 8 and 6, respectively.

A family by the name of Santleben near Castroville took the boys, who worked hard for their keep. And when they were grown, they returned to their father's grant on Verde Creek, about six miles north of the present town of Hondo. The deed to this land, signed by Sam Houston, is in possession of Herbert Decker, Joseph Decker's grandson.

Herbert Decker himself has witnessed five methods of obtaining water on the old ranch: buckets drawn by a horse, by a rotary pump operated by a horsepower, by a windmill, by a gasoline pump, and now by an electric pump.

A portion of the Decker ranch now in possession of Herbert Decker included a townsite. Lots had been surveyed and the town was to be called Vanderburg, one of Henri Castro's four colonies west of the Medina, the other three being Castroville, D'Hanis, and Quihi. At the beginning of the Vanderburg settlement, Verde Creek—named for the verdant growth along its banks—was bold, running stream. But after settlements were made, stream went dry. About 10 miles below the settlement, however, the stream again began flowing. Vanderburg was abandoned, and another settlement named New Fountain, was started where the water flowed.

But Joseph and Charley Decker and a few other colonists, including Louis White, stayed at the first settlement and hauled water. Louis White, a "free thinker" Union sympathizer, fled to Mexico at the outbreak of the Civil War. After the war, he went to Castroville and lived there until his death. And at his request when he died his favorite home was killed and buried with him.

Twenty-five Cents An Acre

When White went to Mexico he offered land to Joseph Decker for 25 cents an acre. But Decker thought the price too high. When White returned and settled in Castroville, Decker went to him and said he was still interested in buying the land.

"Well, Joe," said White, "you can have it. But it'll cost you 25 cents an acre now."

Decker bought the land, now included in the ranch of Herbert Decker. A pile of rocks marks the site of the old two-story house built by White. And about 300 yards north of the home place is the site of an old route once called the "Wolf road," because it marked the retreat of General Adrian Woll's army after its defeat at the Battle of Salado in September, 1842, following the Mexican invasion of San Antonio.

An old building near the ranch home of Misses Louisa and Lena Decker was once the home of Francisca Wantz and her son, Xavier Wantz, a noted Texas Ranger and Indian fighter. He was in numerous battles with Indians and killed the Comanche seen by Miss Louisa Decker when she was a little girl.

The large ancestral Decker ranch home of native rock, beautifully furnished, is a far cry from the original little hut of adobe, cornstalks, and sage grass constructed by Joseph Decker over 100 years ago. By working hard on his ranch and hauling freight to Port Lavaca for extra money, Joseph Decker managed to acquire about 10,000 acres of rich land and a large herd of cattle. His original herd were of typical Longhorn breed. Now the Decker ranch is stocked with Hereford cattle.

When Joseph Decker was a rancher, marketing cattle was not so simple as it is now. He and neighboring ranchers combined their herds and drove them to San Antonio. There buyers purchased the cattle they wanted, and the ranchers were driven back home. The round trip totaled about 180 miles.

Five Daughters Still Living
Joseph Decker and his wife, the former Theresa Wantz, were the parents of nine children. Five daughters are still living. In addition

Defendant In Criminal Action Innocent Until Proven Guilty

In the United States, a defendant is innocent until proven guilty. This principle is a cornerstone of the American legal system. It means that the burden of proof is on the prosecution to show that the defendant is guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. If the prosecution fails to do so, the defendant must be acquitted. This principle is enshrined in the Constitution and is a fundamental right of every citizen.

The Constitution also says that bail may not be set in excess of a reasonable amount. What is considered a reasonable amount depends largely upon the circumstances and the risk involved. Bail must be set high enough to assure the court and the state that the person will not run away, but will return and submit to trial on the date set.

The judge usually will ask the prosecuting attorney for a recommendation as to the amount of bail. The accused's attorney may then ask that the amount recommended be reduced, giving his reasons. The judge will settle on an amount he believes reasonable to assure the accused's presence at the trial.

Occasionally we read of someone "skipping bail". This means that he failed to show up in court at the required time. In such cases the court can order his bail forfeited. The person is still subject to re-arrest and prosecution, however.

Big Torque of the Best Sellers

IT WOULD stand to reason that automobiles selling in the same league, so to speak, would be pretty close in their engineering specifications.

Like in "torque multiplication"—the twisting force a transmission delivers to the drive shaft. (The greater the torque multiplication, the greater the performance).

But what do you find?

You find that any '56 Buick with advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo* delivers a higher torque ratio than any standard-production car in America.

And you find that this high-torque performance is one reason for Buick's best-seller standing. For Buick is now more strongly positioned in the Top 3 of the nation's biggest-selling automobiles.

That's news—and there's plenty more where that came from. For the '56 Buick is jam-packed with new engineering and styling advances to make it the best Buick yet, by far.

That new Dynaflo, for example, brings you the world's only switch-pitch performance in cars—plus a new part-throttle getaway response that's swifter, surer, and a gas-saver to boot.

The new V8 engine is 322-cubic-inches big, and packed with the highest horsepower, the highest compressions in all Buick annals.

There's a joyous new ride, too—a new steering magic—a new "sense of direction" in your every handling maneuver.

Thing to do is come see for yourself. That way you can also look at the prices that have helped move Buick to a new sales success—outselling all other cars in America except two of the well-known smaller ones.

Will you do that, this week?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Dr. Jennings Attends

Dr. J. H. Jennings, secretary-treasurer of the Bexar County District Optometric Society, is attending the 59 Annual Congress of the American Optometric Association at Miami Beach, Florida.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE

By Jerry June Berger

The weather was considerably cooler on our recent trip through some southern states than it is here in Hondo but even so it's a nice feeling to be home again.

While driving along, we got more radio listening done than we have in several months of sparse listening at home. And here again we just can't resist putting in a little plug for Texas, for we didn't hear a station on the trip that compares with the music and news of KONO and another San Antonio radio station. So many of the others feature hillbilly and rock-n-roll music and frankly we must be a square cause, man, we just don't dig that ELVIS PRESLEY. I am sure we heard the BEGINNING of Heartbreak Hotel more than any other record.

Not that we object to a singer merely because he cannot sing. It is more a matter of objecting to the twitching and moaning of a character who acts like he might be a candidate for Mr. Sex-Crazed Delinquent of 1956. And besides that, we like to preserve our ear drums.

Hondo's traveling ambassador, MARTIN NOONAN, is really getting around. Last week he was winding his way southward down the Amazon in South America. This week GEORGE

DAWSON showed us a card he had received from MARTIN, written in Holland. He said that the Dutch were about head and shoulders above the rest of Europe that he had seen, then wound up with a choice comment, "But I wouldn't trade one foot of the United States for all of Europe!"

PA

Soon to leave the country on a vacation are MARGUERITE MURRILL and GLADYS WINDROW, who have a habit of taking long summer vacations. This time, about July 8th, they plan to head for Florida then go to Havana and Nassau.

MRS. MURRILL'S daughter and family, the JOHNNY MARVIN MARSHALLS are living in Hondo now in the Newton home and JOHNNY is employed at the air field. Come September he plans to move his wife and two youngsters to Austin where he will enter the University of Texas and study Petroleum Engineering.

PA

Hondo has probably heard better choirs than the one here Sunday but it is doubtful they have heard a louder one. New Methodist pastor HAROLD GOODENOUGH announced Sunday morning that since it was Father's Day he wanted to organize a male choral group for that night. His requirements were that they not be regular choir members and that they not have had any music training whatever. Thirty men donned choir robes that night and brought along their curious families so the church was actually filled for the night service!

FOOTBALL DISTRICT CHANGES

This may not be football weather but let's talk of things that we hope will be a pleasant subject next fall. The Owls will find themselves still as members of 29-A next September, but some district changes have been made. Crystal City and San Felipe will be in A (111) and not on the Owl schedule—the new district member will be Dilley. Sooo, District 29-A will consist of Hondo, Carrizo Springs, Cotulla, Pearsall and Dilley.

The Owls will have seven home games next year and the three out of town games will be only a short jaunt to Uvalde, Devine and Dilley. Dilley will be the only district game away from home. Hondo will open against Nixon on Sept. 7—Nixon did fine in Class B last year, winning District or Bi-District and will be in Class "A" this coming season. The Owls will need this opener to be in a better position to take Del Rio. The Del Rio game is one the Owls and fans would like very much to win, for the past two years they have been about the only blot on the Owl record, gaining a 21-20 win in '54 and a 7-7 tie last year.

Team	Owl Schedule	Class	Site
Nixon	September 7	"A"	here
Del Rio	September 14	"AAA"	here
Sabinal	September 21	"B"	here
Uvalde	September 28	"AAA"	there
Floresville	October 5	"A"	here
Devine	October 12	"A"	here
	October 19—Open District Games
	October 26—Cotulla—Here
	Nov. 2—Carrizo Springs—Here
	Nov. 9—Pearsall—Here
	Nov. 16—Dilley—There

The 1956 Football Owls

We might as well add more football comments. The Owls, though losing three boys who have been offered four year athletic scholarship by South-west Conference Schools, SHOULD field themselves a real ball club next fall...but a lot of teams have looked good on paper...it will be up to the boys to produce the potential that is there.

The line shapes up to be very rugged — both tackles, Tommy Kock and Gary Schweers, will be back, as will both guards Johnny Windrow and Charles Tilley. End Billy Neuman can be counted on for a good year. The other end spot will find two or three fine prospects fighting for that position. It is possible that 215 lb. Jerry Wiemers, a reserve tackle last year, will move to the center spot. Johnny Windrow may go to the back field and if so spirited Bobby Taylor will make a strong bid for Johnny's guard spot, or for the center position.

The backfield may be short on depth, but who knows what will develop by next September. Big 205 lb. Alvin Hartman should be a much improved and polished quarterback - he will have to keep the ball more next year and plan for needed yards. Half back Butch Woolls can play with ANY high school - he racks things up real good. Ray Highsmith is the other half back and he could hold the key to what success the Owls will come by. Little Ray is quick and tough and he will have to take up the slack that Pete Angermiller's graduation left. Larry Keel would have filled the full back role but he has moved to San Antonio...sooo, Coach Carver is on the look-out for a full back and maybe it will be the steady and reliable Johnny Windrow, though that is not definite.

Coach Carver will be on the look-out for a couple of extra backs who can spell off the starters, for it's a lengthy season. It's a long time off but the ex-Owls and Hondo-ites who live a long way off may want to make a mental note of a trip or two back home next fall to see what we hope will be a winner...as to how much of a winner, the boys can start right now getting mentally ready for that, and then plan the schedule one game at a time.

Ends Winning Streak

Uvalde Nine Whips Hondo Club

A fired-up Uvalde American Legion nine ended Hondo Legion's victory skein at four straight last Friday night, June 15, as it powered its way to a 7-2 win over the Hondoans.

Manager J. G. Barry's base-batters now boast a season record of four victories and one setback. Only three days before the Hondo club had shut-out this same Uvalde team, 5-0.

The game, played at Uvalde, saw the Uvalde basebatters take a three run lead in the opening inning on two hits. Hondo countered with a single run in the top of the second, as Justin Jungman singled, raced to second on an error and scored minutes later on a booming double by first sacker Mike Finger.

Uvalde went further out in front in its half of the third stanza, pushing across two runs on three base hits - all singles. Hondo struck back in the fourth with its final run of the night. Jungman and Finger again figured prominently in Hondo's scoring, as they hit back-to-back singles.

Jungman scored his - and Hondo's - second run on an error by Davenport, Uvalde third baseman. The rest of the game was all Uvalde, with the home team scoring its last two runs in the fifth on only one hit.

Top Hondo hitter was Curtis Wiemers who got two singles in three trips to the plate. Ranking close behind Wiemers in batting for Hondo were Jungman and Finger, who each got two hits in four times at bat.

Other Hondo basebatters collecting hits were shortstop Steve Haby, centerfielder Francis Lutz and second baseman Alvin Hartman. Each managed to get one hit during the night's action.

Uvalde players garnering more than one hit during the game were first baseman Mireles, who had two for four, and right fielder Collier, who had two hits in three trips.

Louie Lutz got the starting mound assignment for Hondo, and gave up five runs before Bippert relieved him after three and one-third innings. McKinney started for Uvalde and was charged with both Hondo runs. Robinson took over for McKinney in the fourth after Hondo had scored its second, and final, run.

Hondo made six errors in the field, while its opponents were charged with only two.

Hondo outthrew their opponents 9-7, but left nine men stranded on the bases.

Air Base Wins Over LaCoste

Hondo Airbase turned back a potent LaCoste baseball team at LaCoste Friday, June 15, 7-5 in a game halted twice by RAIN.

Brose started on the mound for the Airmen and scattered seven hits to gain credit for the victory. In going the route, Brose sent 13 LaCoste players down swinging.

Hondo third sacker, Binkle, was the top batsman for the Airmen, collecting three hits in four trips to the plate. Left fielder Schaffer garnered two bingles in five times at bat.

Ehlinger of LaCoste was the game's number one batter, getting three hits in three official times at bat, and driving home two big runs.

Hondo Airbase scored a run in the top of the first to take the lead, which was short lived as LaCoste came back with a run in its half of the initial frame. Hondo picked up two more in the second and grabbed a lead it never lost.

The Airmen counted three more times in the fourth and once in the seventh. LaCoste denied home plate again in the third, two times in the fourth, and picked up its final run in the seventh.
